Austria - Carinthia

southernmost of the 9
federal states of Austria

approximately 560,000 inhabitants

capital:
Klagenfurt

budget € 2.64 billion (estimate 2019)
debt ESA € 3.61 billion (estimate 2019) adjacent to Italy and Slovenia

known for its nature,
mountains and lakes,
... and HETA

approximately 20,000€
HETA-liability per capita 2015

base case (03/2015)

- 1 Austrian federal government as sole shareholder ceased to provide additional funds to "Hypo bad-bank" HETA
- 2 winding down of HETA under the EU's Banking Recovery and Resolution Directive (BRRD)
- 3 Austrian financial watchdog and resolution authority FMA imposed a debt moratorium until 31 May 2016 - freezing of all debt repayments of HETA
- 4 potential triggering of Carinthia's debt guarantees of about € 11 billion

base case (03/2015)

implications

- 1 Carinthia cut off from international capital markets
- 2 freezing of all discretionary expenses
- 3 refunding solely via Austrian federal treasury
- 4 Moody's rated Carinthia as "B3" (nearly junk grade) in August 2015
- 5 threat of bankruptcy of HETA and hence Carinthia at the end of the moratorium

FAILED STATE

The Lasting Legacy of Austria's Bad Bank

A legacy of the financial crisis is threatening to plunge one of Austria's provinces into bankruptcy. Creditors have rejected a deal and are demanding the state of Carinthia pay almost €11 billion in bonds related to the former Hypo Alpe Adria bank.

Bankers say 'no' to Kärnten

Austria's cash-strapped state of Carinthia edged closer to bankruptcy Thursday after creditors rejected its plea to forgive some of the debts owed by stricken state lender Hypo Group Alpe Adria (HGAA).

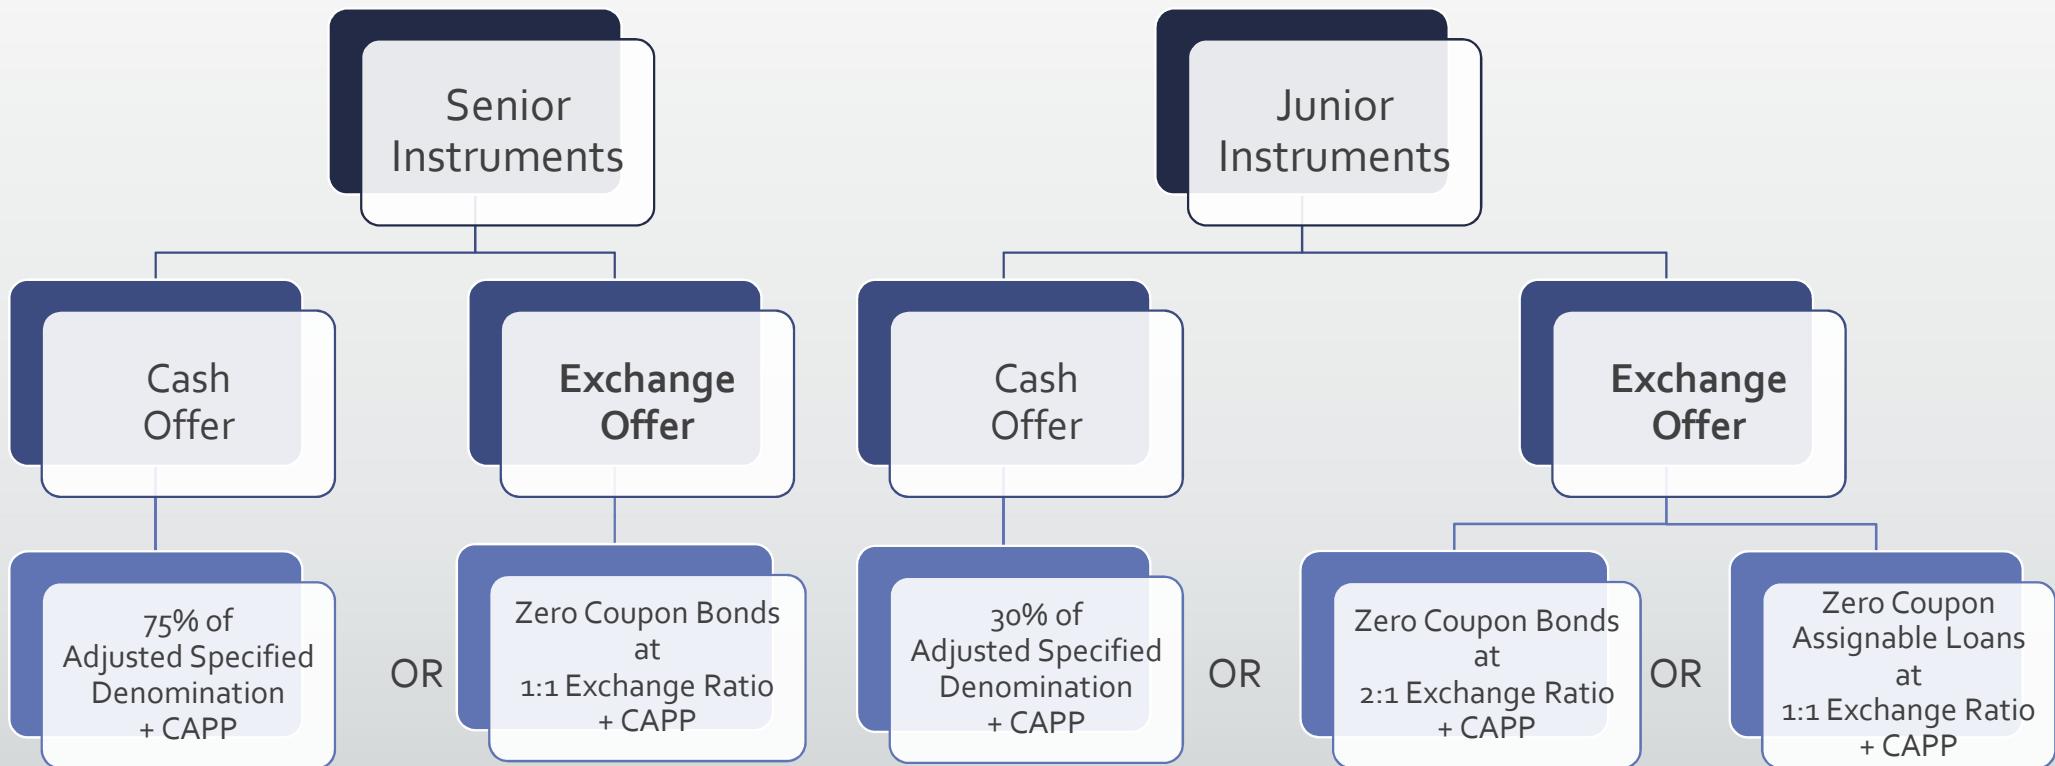

- K-AF announced on 14 March 2016 that offer has been rejected
- no direct consequences, moratorium still in place
- changes expected when FMA decides on further wind-down measures (i.e. haircut)

haircut (04/2016)

- FMA imposes a 53.98% haircut on senior debt and 100% for subordinated claims
- cancellation of all interest payments beginning March 2015
- deferment of maturity for cut liabilities until the end of the wind-down process (ultimately until 31 December 2023)

2nd offer acc. § 2a FinStaG (09/2016)

Options

acceptance (10/2016)

- K-AF announced on 12 October 2016 that the buy-back offer has been accepted (min. 2/3 in total and 1/4 per class):
 - total acceptance 98.71%
 - equals 99.55% of senior debt and 89.42% of junior debt
- creditor upsides:
 - gain uncertain HETA recovery “upfront”
 - potential CAPP payment
 - no long-term court problems
- nearly all creditors took exchange offer in mid-term zero-coupon bonds (volume ZCB about € 10.3 billion)
 - creditors recover about 90% / 45%
- remaining hold-outs: about € 143 million

Austria Cuts a Deal with Heta Creditors

The Austrian government and Heta, the successor organization to insolvent Austrian bank Hypo Alpe Adria, have offered to pay Heta creditors 90 percent of their claims. Most of the creditors appear willing to accept the offer, though there are some holdouts.

rating & status quo (10/2016 – 04/2018)

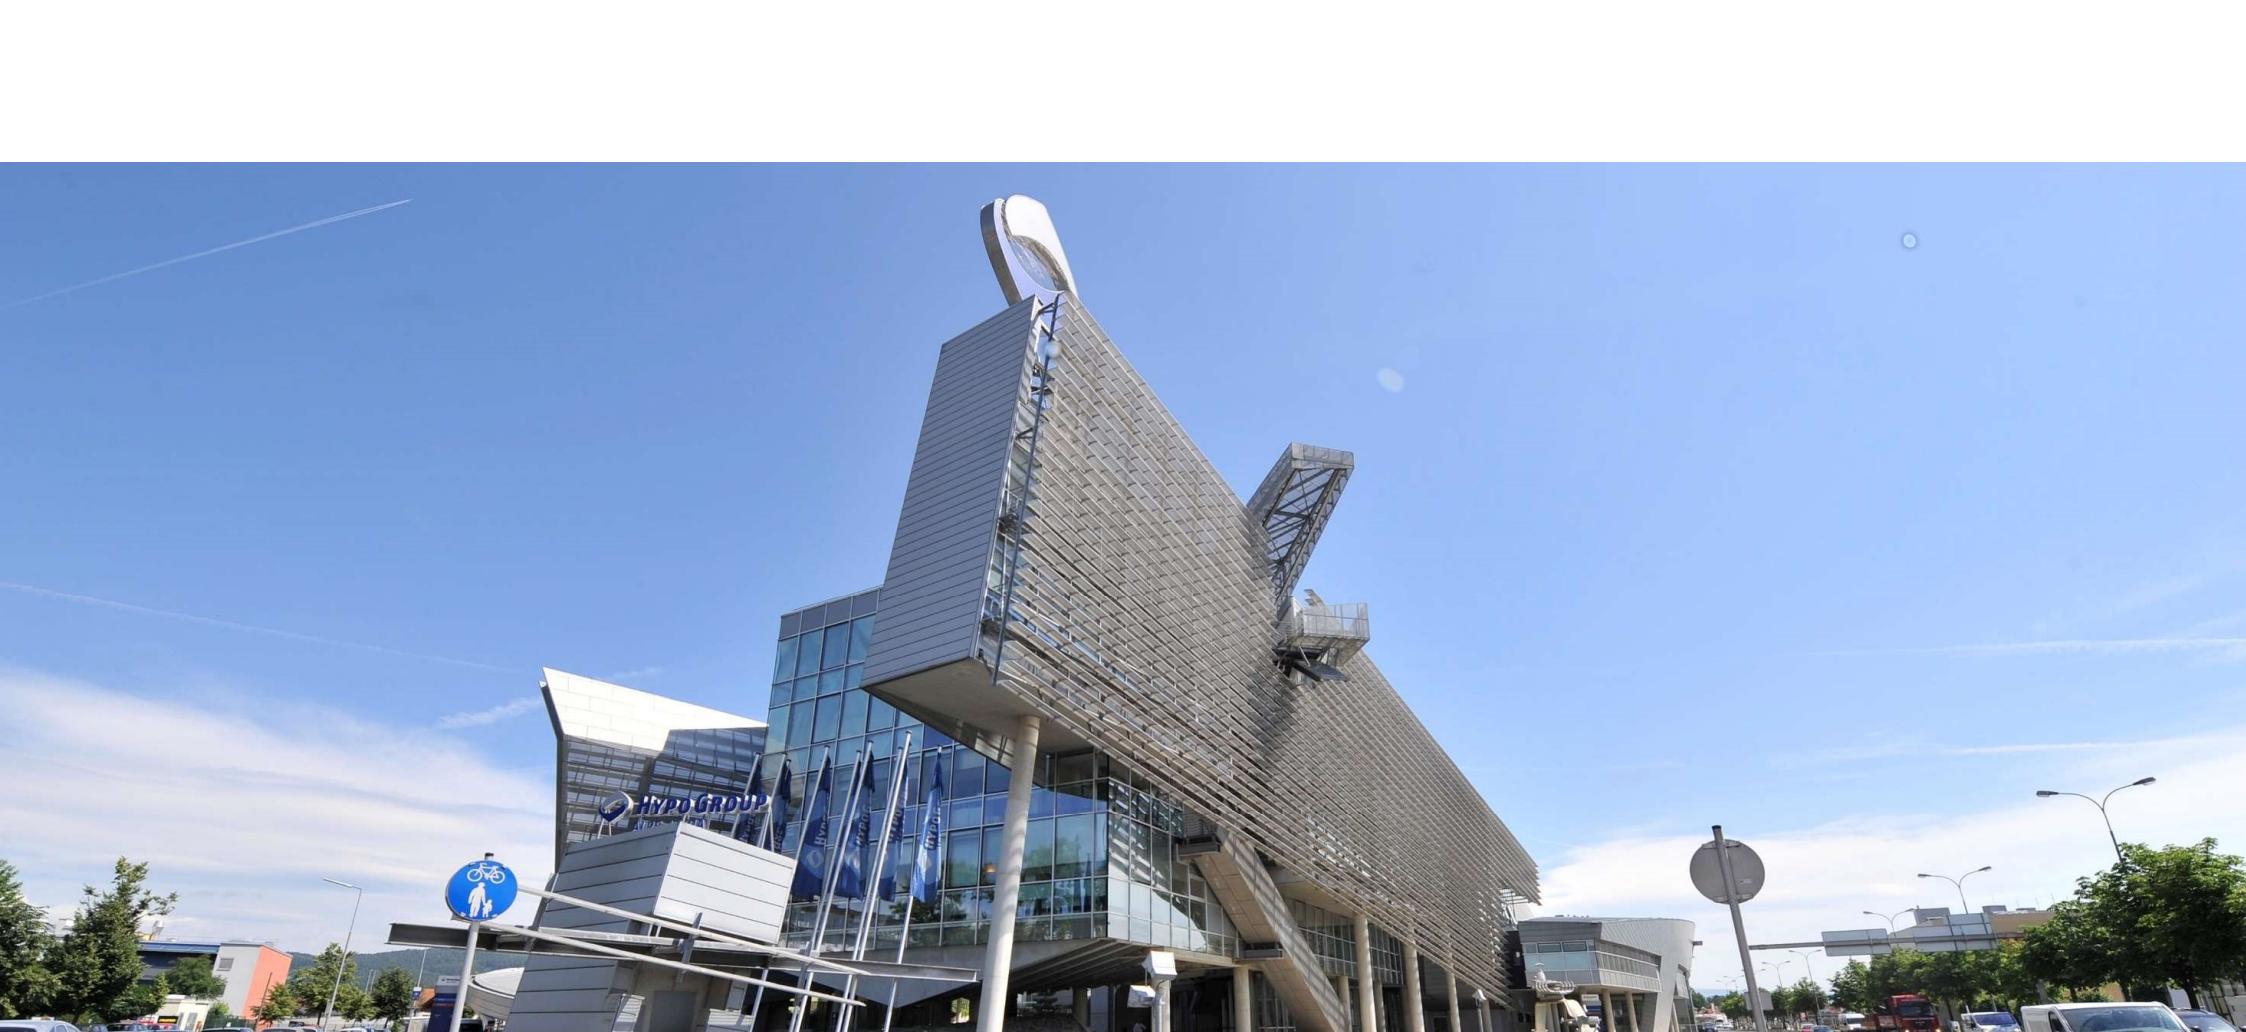

- Carinthia rated “Aa3” (Moody’s) since 27 April 2018 (4th-highest grade)
- equals Carinthia’s first evaluation in July 2011
- Carinthia rated “B3” in August 2015: highly speculative investment (“junk grade”) cf. Greece, Angola, El Salvador
- Austria rated “Aa1” (2nd-highest grade)

funding (10/2016)

- funding volume about € 8.9 billion
- share Carinthia: € 1.2 billion fixed
- funding of compensation amount via federal treasury (OeBFA)
- Carinthian debt acc. ESA totaling about € 3.61 billion (estimate 2019)
- highest per capita debt ratio in Austria of € 6,431 (estimate 2019)
 - cf. Tyrol: about € 350 (estimate 2019)
- remaining funding by federal government via its resolution management vehicle Abbaumangementgesellschaft des Bundes (ABBAG) as preliminary financing of HETA wind-down recovery
- share federal government: depending on wind-down process (fraught with risk)
