Cultural areas

Cultural institutions and companies

Operators for facilities and projects of all kinds of legal forms as well as individual artists

Solidarity financing according to the Saxon Law on Cultural Areas

Financing of Public Cultural Institutions

- | Main focus of the financing: cultural institutions in public ownership
- | Financing through implementation of the institution in the public budget or by providing subsidies/grants
- | Cost coverage up to 25 % by self-obtained revenues such as entrance fees, charges and proceeds from the sale of publications
- | Free cession of the land and buildings which are necessary for the fulfilment of tasks

Theatres and Orchestras

- | Operating grant for theatres is average around 116 € per visitor.
- | Box office earnings for theatres depending on the location are between 8 % and 25 %.
- | The percentage of staff expenditure in the total expenditure in theatres and orchestras in public ownership is around 75 %
- | Collectively negotiated pay increases cause a rising need for subsidies/grants.

Museums

- | Of about 400 museums 280 museums are publicly-funded
- | 11 museums deemed as national cultural heritage, for instance, Grassi Museum in Leipzig, art collections in Chemnitz and state art collections in Dresden
- | State art collections in Dresden with a total collection fund of over 1.2 million works of art and 14 associated museums
- | Annual need for subsidies around 20 million €
- | Museums database “Daphne” for the registration, inventory, evaluation and provenance research of works of art

6.6 million €

56.0 million €

- | Cultural Foundation of the Free State of Saxony as a public-law foundation with legal capacity
- | Task: Funding of 20 associations and federations and around 180 projects per year

Law on Cultural Areas

- | Goal: financial support of municipalities through cultural burden sharing
- | Creation of 5 rural and 3 urban cultural areas
- | 82 million euros annual allocation, about half of this amount for urban cultural spaces
- | Allocation according to financial capabilities and scope of tasks
- | Leipzig: 222 € public spending on culture per inhabitant
